

Paris, 5 November 2021

BERSAY boosts its IP / IT / IT / Data protection practice with the arrival of Frédéric Lecomte as Partner

BERSAY is pleased to announce that Frédéric Lecomte joins the firm as Partner in the Information Technologies, Intellectual Property and Data Protection department, thereby strengthening the Firm's IP-IT practice alongside Claire Poirson.

"By joining BERSAY, I am joining a highly reputable structure, which allows me to offer my clients a high quality of service, not only in my practice but also in other areas of law.", says Frédéric Lecomte.

Member of the Paris Bar since 1988, Frédéric Lecomte specializes in technology and data law. He advises companies in France and abroad (mainly US based clients) on the negotiation and drafting of IT contracts; the implementation of solutions and platforms for companies in the Fintech and Medtech fields; the drafting of trademark and manufacturing licenses or know-how in various industrial sectors (food, fashion); and the implementation or restructuring of distribution networks. He also assists his clients in the field of the Internet, cyber security and personal data for the implementation of the RGPD.

Frédéric Lecomte is also active in litigation. He assists his clients in IT litigation and pre-litigation (infringement, product liability, contractual liability) and commercial litigation (contractual liability, wrongful termination) before the French courts and international arbitration bodies.

"I am delighted that Frédéric has joined our team; his recognized expertise in information technology and particularly in data protection has strengthened the IT department in order to meet the growing digital demand.", says Claire Poirson, partner in the IP-IT department.

Before joining BERSAY in November 2021, Frédéric Lecomte worked as a partner at Stehlin & Associés for twenty-three years, after an initial experience of five years within the law firm Coudert Brothers. He holds a DESS degree in International Trade Law from the University of Tours. Frédéric was also a member of the executive board of the Osborne Clarke Alliance for ten years; then, a member of the Cleantech Open France for two years; and finally he chaired the European BD committee of the Mackrell International legal network for two years. He regularly publishes articles on personal data, the RGPD and cyber security in legal international journals.

"We are delighted to welcome Frédéric to the IP-IT team. This appointment attests to the strong development of the IT activity within the firm through the recruitment of the best profiles. As such, Frédéric's experience and legal expertise consolidates and strengthens the firm's IT practice.", says Jérôme Bersay, managing partner of BERSAY.

Founded in 1995, Bersay brings together 40 highly-qualified lawyers, with wide-ranging expertise to address the legal needs of businesses.

Its practice covers all of the main areas of business activity, in an advisory capacity as well as in litigation and arbitration, and in both national and cross-border matters. The Firm has experienced significant growth thanks to the sustained trust of its clients, who have built its reputation for excellence, thereby enabling it to attract new clients. Driven by a desire to remain constantly innovative, effective and competitive, Bersay became the first Paris law firm to be certified ISO 9001 (in 1998).

More information: <https://bersay.com/en/>

Press Contact

Constance BLANC

Media Relations Consultant

constance@evidemmentlagence.com